WHAT'S HAPPENING...

This Sunday 2.30pm at St Anthony's, the South Sudanese Community will be celebrating the Feast Day of their first Saint Josephine Bakhita. (Her Feast is usually celebrated on 8th of February). The Australian Catholic Bishops Conference & Australian Religious Against Trafficking in Human, released the following last week.

His Holiness Pope Francis declared Sunday 8 February 2015, as World Day of prayer, reflection and action against human trafficking, as one of the saddest wounds of our time.

His message invites us 'to practice acts of fraternity towards those kept in a state of enslavement. Let us ask ourselves, as individuals and as communities, whether we feel challenged when, in our daily lives, we meet or deal with persons who could be victims of human trafficking, or when we are tempted to select items, which may well have been produced by exploiting others.'

Bishop Eugene Hurley, from the Bishops Conference said, 'It is imperative that we begin a journey of personal change. Human trafficking exists in Australia and on this planet because we allow it to exist. Let us together, commit to eradicate this affront to our humanity.'

A united voice of Pope Francis and leaders of the Anglican, Orthodox, Jewish, Islamic, Buddhist and Hindu faiths, "to eradicate the terrible scourge of modern slavery in all its forms", today we join this global initiative.

St Josephine Bakhita, who died on 8 February 1947, was born in Southern Sudan in 1869, and during her life experienced kidnapping and slavery. Following her delivery to freedom

Josephine dedicated her life to sharing her story and to supporting the poor and suffering. She eventually became a Canossian Sister.

Despite many efforts to end human trafficking internationally, an estimated 27 million women, men and children today are deprived of their freedom and forced to suffer in conditions of exploitation and slavery. There is now a compelling need to put an end to trafficking in human beings.

Pope Francis asks us to think of persons trafficked into prostitution, as well as women forced into marriage, without any right to give or withhold their consent.

We remember also people trafficked into Australia to work in the agricultural, construction and hospitality sectors.

And we remember people whose labour is exploited to produce cheap goods for Australians. We remember young boys in West Africa who are trafficked into cocoa production for Australian chocolate. We remember refugees in Thailand who are trafficked onto fishing vessels to produce cheap fish for Australians to eat. We remember the women in Bangladesh whose exploited labour and unsafe working conditions result in cheap clothing for Australians to wear.

We are called for a fourfold commitment to prevention, victim protection, the legal prosecution of perpetrators, and partnerships for change; these require a global effort on the part of various sectors of society.

May we honour the dignity and freedom of every human being, all made in God's image.

Have a good week
Vinoth, Brian, Vicki, Denise & Sang
